IN REMEMBRANCE

Robert John Nordstrom, partner at Porter Wright Morris & Arthur and former professor of law at Ohio State University, died September 7. He attended Western Michigan University before the onset of World War II. During the war, he served in the Army Air Corps as a bombardier in B-17 aircraft, attaining the rank of second lieutenant. After the war, he completed undergraduate studies and went on to law school at the University of Michigan, graduating with Order of the Coif honors. During his tenure as professor, he served on many campus-wide committees, chaired the Mershon Committee, and authored numerous texts and articles on law. Always dedicated to teaching, Robert earned the respect of his many law students over the years. After his retirement from OSU, a chaired professorship was endowed in his name. He remained an active partner in practice at Porter Wright. He is survived by his wife, their three children, nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. The family asks, in lieu of flowers, the family asks those wishing to show their respects should donate to the charity of their choice. ## Columbus Bar promoting members on NBC

The Columbus Bar is pleased to announce the establishment of a year-long marketing relationship with NBC4 as the sole legal representative in the 4YourLifestyle program. Similar to marketing you may have seen for NBC's 4YourHealth program, our agreement with them will provide the Columbus Bar and its members significant exposure on the most watched central Ohio television station and most popular news website based in Ohio. Additionally, Columbus Bar members from the Lawyer Referral Service and ColumbusLawyerFinder.com will be featured at NBC's Health and Lifestyle Expo, this Saturday and Sunday (9/13 and 9/14) at the Columbus Convention Center.

Television coverage will include 30 and 15 second television commercial exposure on NBC4 (WCMH), and a strong presence on NBC4i.com. NBC estimates that over 899,030 adults will see our television exposure every month, and their website averages over 4.6 million page views with over 394,000 unique visitors per month.

NBC's Health and Lifestyle Expo will feature attorneys from Lawyer Referral Service (LRS) and

Angell

Bownas

Gerrity

Luther

Winters

ColumbusLawyerFinder.com (CLF), who will be on hand to answer general legal questions from Expo attendees. Tim Gerrity, Bob Angell, Jim Bownas, and Gary Price will be manning the booth along with Marion Smithberger from LRS and Anne Leonard-Palmer from CLE. Additionally, at 1pm on Saturday, George Luther and David Winters will be presenting "Ten Tips for Parents to share with Teens, before they get into trouble." NBC estimates that 20,000 people will attend the Expo this weekend. Jim Bownas was interviewed on camera by Mike Jackson from NBC on Monday, giving a preview of what kind of questions attorneys in the Columbus Bar booth might be hearing from Expo attendees.

"We are confident that this relationship will be beneficial for our members. We are trying to drive a positive message about the good work our members do, and to make consumers feel less intimidated by the legal process," explains Alex Lagusch, Executive Director. "We expect increased traffic to all Columbus Bar products as a result of our agreement with NBC, and we'd love to help our members connect with more central Ohio consumers and small businesses with legal needs."

Columbus Bar members who would like to benefit from this relationship with NBC should consider participating in the Lawyer Referral Service or ColumbusLawyerFinder.com. To find out more about the Lawyer Referral Service, please phone Marion Smithberger at 221-4112. To become a part of ColumbusLawyerFinder.com, please visit the site, scroll to the bottom of any page, and click Attorneys Join, or phone Anne Leonard-Palmer at 340-2030.

See the banner below that will adorn our booth (#332) at the NBC4 Health and Lifestyle Expo in Hall 'C' at the Columbus Convention Center this weekend. All are encouraged to stop by and see how the Columbus Bar promotes members as positive and helpful providers of legal services in Central Ohio.

NBC4 Partners with Columbus Bar New lawyers: CLE/networking

NBC4 (WCMH-TV) is pleased to announce that the Columbus Bar has joined NBC4's exclusive "4 Your Lifestyle" online resource directory on www.nbc4i.com. The directory includes only the most respected companies and organizations that offer essential services to Central Ohio. The Columbus Bar offers in-depth legal information about finding an attorney, fee disputes and attorney grievances, answers to frequently asked legal questions, Notary Public Services and much more.

As an exclusive "4 Your Lifestyle" partner, the Columbus Bar will also be a part of this weekend's NBC4 Health & Lifestyle Expo. The Expo is Saturday, September 13, 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. and Sunday, September 14, 11 a.m. – 5 p.m. Admission is free.

One of the biggest challenges you face as a "young" lawyer is dealing with the many personalities you encounter in the legal profession. You're expected to know how to present yourself and communicate effectively with others in many functional areas of the law — people in roles as divergent as your managing partner to your favorite judge's bailiff.

The Columbus Bar New Lawyer Committee invites you to attend "You're a Young Lawyer...Now What? Dealing with the Many Personalities of the Legal Profession" on September 16. During this 3.0 CLE hour seminar, a panel of seasoned attorneys will share their insights into how to handle the demands associated with multiple partners and supervisors, as well as working effectively with administrative staff. A panel of judges will provide an introduction to effective communication at the courthouse.

Panelists James L. Ervin, Jr., David L. Johnson, Richard C. Simpson, Dawn Rae Grauel, Rasheeda Z. Khan, Hon. Richard A. Frye, Hon. Stephen L. McIntosh, and Hon. Patrick E. Sheeran will provide communication tips and tricks that could prove invaluable in ensuring your success and professional reputation as an attorney.

Stick after the program for the annual New Lawyer Committee Kick Off Happy Hour. There will be food, beverages and plenty of time to network and socialize. Happy Hour will begin immediately following the conclusion of the seminar at 4:45 p.m. and will run until 6:45 p.m. Join us as we begin another year of New Lawyer activities. Happy Hour is free and you don't have to attend the CLE program to attend the happy hour, but to ensure plenty of food and beverages, RSVP to Holly Canterucci holly@cbalaw.org, no later than September 12.

Register online for the CLE seminar at www.cbalaw.org/cle or call 614/221.4112 for event # NL080916. Member cost is $105 prepaid/$120 day-of, non-member cost is $150 prepaid/$165 day-of, and non-attorney cost is $75 prepaid/$90 day-of.

Sutak

Hilb Rogal and Hobbs is bringing in a new Employee Benefit Account Executive. Char Bigelow Sutak will work with Mike Turney to continue to provide Columbus Bar members with the finest insurance plans at the best prices. She will be focusing her efforts on law firms sized 2 - 50.

"We are delighted to have Char on our team. She brings a wealth of group and individual benefit experience and has worked extensively with attorneys through her five years of experience as director of sales for the Ohio State Bar Association Insurance Agency. To find an addition to the team who really understands both lawyers and insurance is truly a fantastic find," said Kevin Amos, executive vice president of HRH Employee Benefits.

Char is the immediate past president of the Columbus Association of Health Underwriters. She has served on the board of directors for the Ohio Association of Health Underwriters and represented the state of Ohio as a national delegate for the National Association of Health Underwriters.

A former director of sales for the Ohio State Bar Insurance Agency, she received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Miami University and immediately started her insurance career at Nationwide. She has served as a benefit representative for the Ohio State Medical Association and for the Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

Alex Lagusch, Columbus Bar executive director added, "We are pleased to have Char. You will see her attending many Bar events, including committee meetings and CLE classes. She will be contacting all current accounts with 2-50 attorneys to set up personal appointments over the next few weeks to answer questions, review coverages and highlight all of the value added services that both HRH and the Columbus Bar bring to their members."

HRH has been the endorsed insurance broker for the Columbus Bar since 1989.

OVI Law Changes imminent

Another layer of complexity is about to be added onto an OVI law that is already Byzantine. Senate Bill 17 becomes effective September 30. Changes include forced blood draws being authorized under some circumstances; the Administrative License Suspension (ALS) and court suspension hard times will increase as will the method for computing ALS priors; and there will be a number of situations where SCRAM and interlock will be mandatory pre-trial and the rules regarding these are sometimes counterintuitive.

The statute shifts the burden of proof to the defendant on the issue of prior convictions; and makes things count as priors that previously did not. Fines and reinstatement fees will increase (this is in addition to the 6/25/08 increase).

Alcohol assessment is mandatory for repeat offenses, and judicial power is essentially ceded to alcohol assessors regarding treatment. SB 17 creates an Internet habitual offender list which will show your client's date of birth and address. What counts as a prior for this list is different than what counts for the OVI itself. The definition of equivalent offenses was also changed. Boating OVI's will count as priors in non-boating cases. There are also other "BUI" changes.

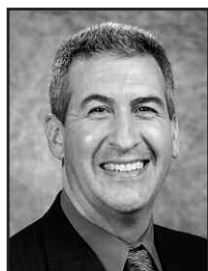

Locally, as well as statewide, suppression motions are increasingly becoming traps for lawyers. Here's a common scenario: You and your client show up for a motion hearing. The prosecutor says you didn't draft your motion properly, and the judge denies you a hearing. You complied with Shindler, but the judge says that is not enough. Learn what is happening and what to do about it.

Join presenters Lara Baker, Tim Huey, Dennis Evans, Cleve Johnson and a to-be-named representative from the judiciary for a 3-hour CLE seminar about these and other issues on September 19 from 1:30 to 4:45 p.m. at the Columbus Bar.

Register online for the CLE seminar at www.cbalaw.org/cle or call 614/221.4112 for event # CR080919. Member cost is $105 prepaid/$120 day-of, non-member cost is $150 prepaid/$165 day-of, and non-attorney cost is $75 prepaid/$90 day-of.

Counseling Clients on Compensation Matters

Ciriaco

Duffy

Daugherty

Whether your client is a company director establishing new executive compensation protocols, or ensuring the integrity of existing remuneration programs, understanding Internal Revenue Code Section 409A is key. Effectively attaining a thorough understanding of this IRS regulation just got a lot more efficient.

During a 3-hour CLE seminar titled "Counseling Clients on Compensation Matters" seminar on September 17, presenters will delve into an overview of IRC Section 409A; its effect upon employment and severance agreements; and its impact on supplemental executive retirement plans and other retirement arrangements.

Presenting this seminar are three experts in the area of compensation matters: Anthony C. Ciriaco, partner at Vorys Sater Seymour & Pease, specializes in ERISA and employee benefits; Alan D. Duffy, associate at Vorys, practices in the area of executive compensation and works closely with public, private, and tax-exempt employers; and Greg M. Daugherty, Porter Wright Morris & Arthur, is experienced in assisting clients with corrections of their benefits plans and advising fiduciaries in how to protect themselves from liability regarding their benefits plan decisions.

Don't let your clients miss out on all they are entitled to while staying in compliance with the increasingly complex legal requirements imposed by both federal and state law.

Register online for the CLE seminar at www.cbalaw.org/cle or call 614/221.4112 for event # LE080917. Member cost is $105 prepaid/$120 day-of, non-member cost is $150 prepaid/$165 day-of, and non-attorney cost is $75 prepaid/$90 day-of.
